The Arco da Vila gives access to the old part of the city, known as the 'village inside'. inside is the 11th-century Arab Gate, the oldest horseshoe arch in the country, which was the entrance to the walls for those arriving by sea. The municipality of Faro is delimited to the south by the Ria Formosa, by a dune cord, forming 3 main islands and islets, and by the Atlantic Ocean. The narrow tongue of fine golden sand, punctually interrupted by the connections between the sea and the Ria, called Barras, form the 3 main islands: ilha da Culatra and Farol, ilha Deserta and Faro island. Faro Airport is located within a 15-minute drive from the city and the Forum Algarve Shopping Centre is at the entrance of the city.
