Overview

Nicely wooded, over 1/2 acre lot, very close to town. City water, electric and natural gas is available at the street. This property is in an established neighborhood, just south of the AuSable River mouth into Lake Huron. Beautiful sandy township public beach is just up the road with shopping and other services nearby. It is within a few miles of thousands of acres of public land with miles of all season trails, hunting and fishing. East Tawas is just 15 miles to the south with additional shopping and restaurants.
