Overview

A lovely location on a large wooded lot not far from downtown East Tawas! This beautiful spacious home offers an updated kitchen with snack bar, hardwood floors and large dining area! Appliances are included! The oversized living room is stunning with wood vaulted ceilings and a gas log brick fireplace, the newer flooring keeps the main living area looking its best! There is a main level bedroom, the main level bathroom has been tastefully remodeled and looks great! There are also 2 bedrooms and a full bath upstairs! The utility room is conveniently located off the entrance from the garage which then leads downstairs to the full basement that is partially finished with a family room area, work out area and plenty of storage space. The two car garage is finished and the newer garage doors update this home nicely! There is also a 12x24 garden shed out back! The above ground heated pool is surely to be a great gathering spot for friends and family and offers expansive decking for entertaining! This property has city water, plus a separate well for the irrigation system which helps keep the landscaping looking its best! Shown by appointment!
