Overview

Desirable location, on a dead end street and completely fenced in yard. Close to highway access and NH tax free shopping. This home has so many updates furnace, water tank, central air, leaf gutter life time warranty, kitchen cabinets painted, new appliances. Welcoming the natural light coming in this home from all the windows. First floor has hardwood throughout. You will enjoy your 4 season porch all year long. This home has so much to offer large bedrooms and the master bedroom is the size of 2 bedrooms which you can turn it into a 3 bedroom home. Basement is a great place to have your family over for watching sports. There is also a bar located with open concept. You will have a 1/2 bathroom in the basement including a laundry room. Just off this you will find a workshop. Stepping outside on your large deck wraps around to the back of the home. Great for the family get togethers for the cookouts or enjoying your morning coffee. You have a spacious yard adjacent to the forest.
