Overview

BACK ON THE MARKET with fresh interior paint!!!! CHARMING SINGLE STORY HOME WITH MOUNTAIN VIEWS AND NO HOA!! Located in a desirable neighborhood close to everything you need!!...Literally a couple miles or less to freeways, schools, churches, stores, and restaurants! This house is perfect for empty nesters looking to downsize, or a young family looking for their first home in a great school district! Also, with that rare gated RV/boat parking area and a low maintenance yard this is a great find!! The front yard is set back from the street and has a quaint gated courtyard nice for relaxing with family or friends. While the property is clean and well maintained, it could use a little TLC with some cosmetic upgrades. Please dont hesitate to schedule a showing as these single level homes never last long!!
