Overview

A serene escape just minutes from amenities is what you will find at 6969 N M30. Situated on 25 acres of woods and with over 900 feet of frontage of the Tobacco River stands a place ripe for making memories. The home seamlessly blends with its surroundings; boasting a stone fireplace, custom pine walls with vaulted ceilings and windows that allow you to always be immersed in nature. Having been remodeled to meet today's modern way of living, this home has never flooded. Four gracious bedrooms and three baths will accommodate your family and guests. But if that is not enough, the lower level has additional finished space to live, learn, work and relax. A vast, four car garage allows you to store your vehicles and toys, while also having a place for projects. A rare opportunity, this property will allow you to relax and enjoy life.
