Overview

Custom-built, one-owner brick ranch home with new windows, new exterior wrapped vinyl and aluminum on the soffits and gables, and new gutters for maintenance-free living. Inside, the hardwood floors have been refinished to their original beauty in the living room, dining room, hall and three bedrooms. The back family room offers a brick fireplace, access to the back patio and to the carport, laundry area and massive storage options. Tucked quietly behind the family room, you will find a large primary suite, attached full bath and plenty of storage. The large home and yard are within sight of Elkhorn Elementary School, so you can watch the kids walk safely to and from school. This home is calling your name. Come take a look, today.

Declaration of square footage from another source (PVA): Finished square footage calculations for this house were made based on estimated dimensions only and may include unfinished areas, or openings in the floors not associated with stairs, or openings in the floors exceeding the area of the associated stairs.
