Overview

24+ acres of paradise. Perfect for someone looking to build their dream home or a private recreational oasis. Slightly rolling, some flat acres and woods make up this one of a kind property. The uniqueness of this property is that McKinzie Creek runs through the entire property. The water is crystal clear with sandy and gravel bottom perfect for Trout spawning. Imagine owning your own creek to float and swim down. Years ago an island was designed in the middle of the creek allowing water to flow completely around this piece of land. An abundance of wildlife call this place home. Personal belongings can be stored in the 2+ car garage.
