Overview

Looking for country living with no restrictions? This 6.02 acre parcel may be just what you want. You could either build your dream home or have a manufactured home. While no septic or well is currently on the property, there is electricity on the street. Less than one hour to Charleston, this is a chance to live the country life and still be close to lots of action. It is located directly across the street from 300 Spring Branch Road.
