Overview

This charming home will instantly captivate you by the curb appeal. The main level welcomes you with an updated kitchen featuring an island that flows seamlessly into the dining area, creating an open and inviting floor plan. Centered by a cozy wood fireplace, the living room offers a relaxing space that looks out to a spacious backyard. The primary bedroom is generously sized, as are the additional bedrooms. The finished basement provides versatile additional space. Outside, the expansive and mature landscaped backyard mirrors the charm of the front, and offers multiple areas for entertaining and activities. Additional storage is provided above the garage, along with a shed for gardening tools and supplies. With a new Weil-McLain boiler and water heater installed, the home is well-prepared for years to come. The layout is designed to provide an ideal living environment with its spacious rooms and abundant amenities.
