Overview

Offered here is a beautiful mountain house located in the highly desirable Tusquittee Valley in Hayesville. This home is in great shape and in an excellent location just a few miles out of town, has a paved drive, setting on almost 2 acres, has a gentle sloping yard and beautiful year-round mountain views! Excellent layout, spacious living area with impressive stone fireplace. Enjoy a large primary bedroom and laundry on the main level, 2 guest rooms, a bonus room, and a full bath on the upper level with setting area, large entertainment room, half bath, and storage room in the basement as well as a nice home theater room!! Covered porch running the length of the home on one side, an open deck on the other to take in the views. No roof tops or homes obstructing the view and here you own the property that controls the views which is very important. Come see this property as it will not disappoint! call for info
