Overview

Does this home really sit on a double lot in La Crosse's upper northside? It sure does! Imagine all the possibilities like gardening or a spectacular game of croquet with this gigantic yard to play in. But wait. Maybe you're a car enthusiast as well. You may need a 3 car garage with an additional garage. Not to mention several nicely poured parking pads along with it. The home itself? You can move right in as well! This home was well maintained over the years and it just needs you to bring your decorating ideas. It offers new flooring, new picture window, and a new roof from Nov. 2023. You really need to see this because there is so much opportunity in this home that you rarely find with city living. See it today!
