Overview

Looking for a well cared for, move-in ready 2nd floor ranch condo unit? This one just became available in the desirable Windridge subdivision of Naperville and it's located minutes from shopping, restaurants, entertainment, the Naperville Neuqua Valley High School district and convenient access to Route 59. Large vaulted ceiling Living room with skylights and a sliding door to your private deck make this a very bright and uplifting end-unit. The kitchen has all the cabinet, counter space and newer stainless steel appliances you need to fix a snack or host a dinner party. Two generous-sized bedrooms with plenty of storage also have their own full bathrooms. The spacious in-unit laundry and utility room has additional space for storage too. Parking won't be a problem here either with the attached garage and driveway parking but street parking is also available for guests. Come visit this wonderful home soon and get ready to fall in love with it and its location.
