Overview

Country living at its finest! Escape to your own private sanctuary on nearly 7 acres, just minutes away from downtown Vader. This beautiful property is perfect for horse enthusiasts or those with large animals, featuring a fully fenced pasture and ample space to roam. The 3-bed, 2 bath home was originally built in 1983 but has been updated multiple times. The home offers a comfortable and cozy living space with a wood-burning stove and updated appliances in the kitchen including a propane range. Sit on your covered front porch to enjoy the view of your property! The large shop is ideal for animal lovers, providing plenty of room for farming equipment, storage or hobby projects. Whether you're looking to start a small farm, enjoy the privacy of rural living, or simply want peaceful retreat, this property offers endless possibilities.
