Overview

Spectacular Tudor with loads of character and charm located in the heart of the Park! Beaming with pride of ownership and craftsmanship of yesteryear, this home has it all! Leaded windows, beautiful wet plaster walls/trim, unpainted original doors, and characteristically Tudor nooks and crannies that do not disappoint. Pewabic tile vestibule opens up to a majestic foyer, which sets the tone for a lovely circular floor plan. Library features leaded window built-ins and loads of natural sunlight. The fabulous living room that spans the lower level with a fantastic natural fireplace leading to the formal dining room. The kitchen still has the breakfast nook with leaded windowed pantry. All the lower level rooms are spacious, with hardwood floors in mint condition. The second floor boasts 4 large bedrooms and 2 full baths, one easily made into a primary suite with an ensuite bath and walk-in closet should you desire. The third floor has 2 bedrooms and an additional full bath, perfect for a teenager's hideaway, mother-in-law suite, or private work-from-home office. Basement has rec room and laundry. Loads of storage space and closet space throughout. Both the back and front yards are wonderfully landscaped with mature perennial gardens. It's truly a gem. It is ideally situated close to schools, The Village, and Westpark. Great walkability and easy access to Downtown Detroit!
