Overview

Experience the charm of this fully remodeled one-story ranch home in Palmdale, transformed into a desert oasis. The property features a newly redesigned pool and landscape, offering a tranquil, private retreat with fortified fencing all around the property. Inside, every detail has been meticulously upgraded, including a modern kitchen, renovated bathrooms, new flooring, fresh paint, and updated plumbing and electrical systems. The spacious living area, enhanced by an open floor plan, invites natural light and offers a seamless flow between the living room, dining area, and kitchen. The garage has been finished and was used as an office by the seller, providing the flexibility to be converted into an additional room or an ADU buyer to verify with the city. Don't miss this rare opportunity to own a beautifully upgraded home that combines country charm with modern convenience.
