Overview

A magnificent blend of space and serenity awaits in this stunning split-level home. Backing up to acres of natural open space that turn emerald green in springtime, the colorful backyard is the ideal place to forget your worries and cares. But that's just the beginning. Inside, you'll find all sorts of recent upgrades: fresh carpet, updated appliances, quartz kitchen counters and even a remote-controlled gas fireplace insert. The open-concept kitchen includes a double-oven, newer sink and fixtures, laminate flooring and a sun-splashed breakfast nook that looks out over the gorgeous back yard and all that open space. Thanks to the split-level layout, the entire living area is on the main level while the bedrooms and baths occupy the other two levels. The primary suite, with a walk-in closet, twin sinks, jetted tub and stall shower, plus 2 other bedrooms are upstairs. And the lower level features a junior suite with backyard access (which could also serve as a secluded home office) and an interior laundry. The redwood sundeck is right off the kitchen, which makes it the perfect spot for a Sunday brunch or summertime BBQ. And there's central air, a dog run with artificial turf and gravel, and an extra-long cemented side yard for RV parking or storing other oversized recreational belongings.
