Overview

Nestled within the serene landscapes of the North Rock Creek School District, this charming and cozy 3-bed 2-bath brick home awaits you. Situated on two acres of land, this home invites you to find comfort and privacy while remaining close to essential amenities. The two-acre lot provides ample room for outdoor activities, gardening, or simply enjoying all that nature has to offer. It has an inviting large covered front porch ideal for unwinding after a long day. There is a large shop building which offers additional storage or space for all your hobbies. The home is in close proximity to grocery stores, healthcare, restaurants, and I-40. Residents can easily access what they need without sacrificing the peace and comfort that is offered by rural living. If you are looking for a little extra outdoor space and an opportunity to create a lifestyle that is uniquely yours, you have to check out 23 Lake Lane. Call/Text to schedule your appointment today!
