Overview

If you are an investor or looking to start your journey of home ownership with a property that is within walking distance to schools, restaurants and less than five miles from Robins Air Force Base, you have found it! Roll up your sleeves for some sweat equity. This three bedroom, two bathroom, single family dwelling that has updated flooring throughout, and feels like private living within the city. The seller even added fresh sod in the front so you don't have to! At this price, be ready to finish the work and then sit back as your investment works for you. This is the perfect opportunity to own just miles away from the new Commercial Circle renovations that are underway in the up and coming downtown Warner Robins area. See it and make your cash offer today!
