Overview

This Pole Barn house combines rustic charm with modern amenities. It features a welcoming covered front porch with Dutch-cornered pillars and a 10-foot wrap-around stamped concrete area. Inside, the open floor plan boasts a vaulted ceiling and a gas stove in the living room. The spacious 16x14 bedroom and sliding barn doors add character throughout. The main garage area measures 31x39 with a concrete floor and power. There's also a well-equipped laundry area with a sink, cabinets, and counter space, along with a 12-foot and 10-foot roll door. An office space and an attic fan enhance functionality. The 31x22 woodworking shop includes zoned A/C, a 31x37 garage space, and a large loft for storage. The wood shop also features a compressor and power coils in the ceiling. The lower level includes a roughed-in bathroom and potential bedroom options. Additionally, the lot area north of the house has utilities available for a camper hook-up. No detail was overlooked on this impressive property!
