Overview

This home is ready for you to move in or renovate it for instant equity. With three nice sized bedrooms and an additional space for your office this traditional ranch home has everything your family needs. The serene country setting and long tree lined driveway create a perfect retreat while still being only minutes from quaint historic Waxhaw with all that it has to offer. The cute detached building can be whatever you need it to be; a private office, a she-shed, a man cave you choose. Sit on the porch and listen to the sounds of nature or eat at the picnic table under a tree in the front yard. Put your vehicle in the attached carport and use the additional shelter for your boat or RV. There's even a place for your lawnmower and equipment. This home, along with almost 2.5 acres of wooded privacy, is one you don't want to miss.
