Overview

Discover an exceptional opportunity to own an oceanfront home nestled within the highly coveted 'Lost Winds' neighborhood of San Clemente. Revel in sweeping views of the Pacific Ocean stretching from Cotton's Point to Dana Point, with convenient beach access to Lausen's just moments away. This custom-built 4-bedroom, 3.5-bathroom home boasts panoramic ocean vistas from nearly every room. The primary bedroom, thoughtfully situated on the first floor, opens onto an expansive patio and lush backyard, while an additional primary bedroom on the upper level offers equally stunning ocean panoramas. Meticulously designed, this residence features recent upgrades including a whole-house repipe, water filtration system, and tankless water heater. Original hardwood floors, vaulted ceilings with natural wood beams, and ample storage closets further the home's allure. Enhanced by a picturesque white picket fence, both the front and back yards offer enchanting spaces for relaxation and entertainment. With its captivating views and impeccable craftsmanship, this oceanfront oasis offers a lifestyle of unparalleled coastal luxury in the heart of San Clemente's most sought-after neighborhood.
