Overview

Nestled just 1.5 miles from the stunning Buffalo National River, this +/- 25.9-acre property offers the perfect blend of privacy, natural beauty, and equestrian potential. Imagine waking up each morning in your cozy 784-square-foot cabin, surrounded by the sights and sounds of rural Arkansas, with great views of the Ozark hills and plenty of space for your horses to roam and graze. Whether you're an outdoor enthusiast looking for a basecamp for hiking, fishing, and exploring, or simply seeking a peaceful retreat to unwind and reconnect with nature, this property has it all. The cabin provides a comfortable living space, ideal for weekend getaways or as a starting point to build your dream home. With easy access to one of the country's most beautiful national rivers, you can enjoy canoeing, kayaking, and fishing right in your backyard. The expansive, gently rolling terrain is perfect for horses, making it a haven for equestrian activities and outdoor adventures. The lush landscape is teeming with wildlife, making this a hunter's dream or a nature lover's paradise.
