Overview

Listen to the Quiet and Enjoy the Stunning Sunsets in this home located at the end of the road. It has a breathtaking view of the valley and lake beyond with up to 37.5 more acres available in whatever size parcel you desire. Plenty room for gardening, animals, children... just feels like home! House completely restored with all new electrical, plumbing, new bath and lighting fixtures, kitchen cabinets, appliances, granite counters, floor coverings, paint and more. The downstairs is partially finished out, with potential for an additional kitchen, living/dining area, bedrooms, etc. but has been left up to the new owner's imagination and needs. There is also a 2 car garage and covered parking area on the basement level. On the south side of the house is the frame for an above ground pool w/ deck that could easily be restored to full use with a new vinyl liner and pool equipment. A detached 896 sq. ft. garage/barn is available with additional acreage. Come take a look and see if this is your dream come true!
