Overview

We present a stunning custom-built home in East Glencoe, just steps away from the shores of Lake Michigan. This timeless home, constructed in 2006, has been meticulously maintained and updated to offer modern luxury living in a serene setting. The exterior boasts an impressive stone facade and a stately roof with bay windows, creating a captivating first impression among the mature oaks of the front yard. Upon entering, the craftsmanship and attention to detail are immediately apparent. From the iron stairway to the gorgeous hardwood flooring, every aspect of the home exudes quality. The main floor features a handsome office with outstanding built-in bookcases and bay window, a stately living room with a stone fireplace, and a separate dining room perfect for hosting fine dining occasions. The heart of the home is the expansive chef's kitchen, complete with a large island with prep sink, stainless Wolf double oven with 6 burners, Sub Zero refrigerator and freezer, Miele dishwasher, and more. The kitchen opens to a delightful eating area with bay windows and a family room with a striking vaulted ceiling and fireplace, all designed to capture outstanding natural light and views of the serene yard and Lake Michigan. The living spaces open up to stone patios for outdoor relaxation and enjoyment. The upper level houses the private primary suite with tray ceilings, a clever office nook, balcony, massive walk-in closet and an elegant stone and tiled bath with a double sink, soaking tub, and shower with multiple sprays and rain shower. Three additional bedrooms with ensuite baths and plentiful closet space complete the upper level. The fully finished lower level offers the conveniences of a main living space, featuring a full wet bar, fireplace, dedicated home theater with terrace seating and a 175-inch screen, billiard/game room, exercise room with padded flooring, sauna, full bath and a guest bedroom. Outside, a circular brick driveway leads to three garage parking spots, while the property includes a central vac, backup generator, and multiple heating and cooling zones for added convenience and comfort. The wooded property offers an array of possibilities including a potential pool, garden and recreation spaces. The location is as ideal as it gets, steps from Glencoe Beach, downtown Glencoe, transportation, schools, parks, and attractions like the Chicago Botanic Gardens. This home truly offers a perfect blend of timeless elegance, modern luxury, and an unbeatable location.
