Overview

You cant buy peace of mind, but this may be the next best thing! Lovely Colonial set among the trees and rolling lawns at the intersection of convenience and sanctuary. Expansive fireplaced living and dining areas are flooded in light with warm wood flooring and plenty of space for entertaining or lounging at home. An oversized chefs kitchen offers lots of storage in sleek white cabinetry and stone topped workspaces with a full complement of stainless appliances. Upstairs features 4 spacious bedrooms including a serene primary with an en-suite bath. The lower level presents many exciting possibilities for any number of activities. The 2-car garage houses your cars with additional space for secure storage. Myras Wy. lies within a coveted location touted for its superior public schools. Easily pack up your things and move right in!
