Overview

Discreetly perched among heritage oak trees on a hilltop behind a gated entry, this entertainers dream home offers unparalleled views of downtown Austin. The soft contemporary residence is a testament to modern luxury, with floor to ceiling windows positioned to embrace both dazzling evening city lights and serene sunrises. Thoughtfully curated open-plan living spaces offer wooden floors, custom stainless-steel staircase, onyx fireplace, zebra wood study, 2, 200 bottle wine cellar, handcrafted stained glass kitchen and cocktail bar backslashes, gourmet and prep kitchen, butlers pantry with built-in china cabinets, crystal chandeliers, and a granite fountain upon entry. A private wing blends an oversized primary suite with walls of glass, and a cozy niche to a secluded patio. The exquisite bathroom offers a 14-head walk-in shower, soaking tub, and an audacious designer closet. Inclusive to the 7, 574 square foot estate are two, upstairs ensuite bedrooms for family and friends.
