Overview

Experience superior craftsmanship with this exceptional home from a respected builder known for its quality and value. Nestled at the back end of the subdivision, this property benefits from a serene natural backdrop, ensuring no future construction behind you as long as the nature reserve remains. Ideally located near Pennsylvania Ave, it's just a 10-minute drive from South Padre Island's scenic beaches. This home is perfect for growing families or professionals at the new LNG facility, and it's conveniently close to Port Isabel Junior and High School. With its spacious, modern design, it's also an excellent choice for those interested in the excitement of SpaceX launches and a vibrant community, offering a perfect combination of contemporary living and peaceful surroundings.
