Overview

A modern deck home that has been reimagined. This property is tucked above the road, offers complete privacy and is surrounded by nature. You will be amazed by the European designer kitchen that is spacious and bright. It offers multiple prep areas, built-in storage/pantries, center island for both eating and preparing...offering double ovens and quartz counters. The entire first floor has amazing natural sunlight with walls of glass and sliders that leads to a deck that runs along the backside of the home for outdoor entertaining space. Double doors separate the bedroom suite and offers a luxurious primary including multiple sliders with private views, walk-in closets outfitted with custom built-in storage. The primary bathroom suite has a separate soaking tub, double vanity, and walk-in shower. The lower living area has another full-bedroom suite with a private entrance along with a large living area, pellet stove and a dry sauna. Too much to list! Come see this home.
