Overview

Have you been dreaming of a great neighborhood, close to everything that Falmouth has to offer? Well, here it is! Located out of the flood zone, and upon the hill, on one of the most exclusive streets in Falmouth, this extremely large ranch home is available for the first time in many years. Time, with natures help, has transformed this home especially on the outside. Some of the beautiful trees surrounding the house are close to 70 years old, and provide shade and refuge for various squirrels and birds. You can enjoy the scenery from your front porch or from the covered patio that overlooks a flat backyard, with flowers, bushes, and large trees abounding. The inside of the home immediately reminds you of the way homes were designed when you were a child. Lots of space, with large rooms, you'll find touches that will remind you of grandma throughout, along with a few upgrades that make life a little easier today. You will find craftsmanship throughout that is not available in todays' homes with intricate wall shelving, interior door design, and a time when things were built to last. With this amount of space, the options are many. Don't miss out on your chance to see this home.
