Overview

Located in the much sought-after beach community of Monument Beach, this wonderful year-round home built in 1900 has loads of charm. One of the first things you will notice, other than the great location, is the amazing hardwood floors throughout the house. The 1st floor features a living room w/ fireplace, dining area, renovated kitchen w/ granite countertops, upgraded cabinetry and stainless-steel appliances. Off the dining / kitchen area is a mud room / laundry hook up and a newer tankless water heater and a nearly renovated bath. A wraparound enclosed porch adds 557 sq ft of additional space to the living / sleeping area. The 2nd floor has 4 A classic knotty pine bedrooms and a renovated bath. The home is close and centrally located to Monument Beach and Marina; Chester Park w/ its beach playground, courts, and rec area; Whistle Stop ice cream, Becky's Bakery, The Stand on Beach Street and a convenience store adding to the enjoyment and lifestyle that only owning a home like this can bring!
