Overview

You will delight in this charming and privately sited 1930's Georgian colonial with sidewalk to Barrett's Mill Farm and conservation trails. Here's your opportunity to make Concord HOME-- move right in! With a freshly painted interior, new fixtures and refinished hardwood floors on the second level, endless opportunities await a new owner to take this home to the next level. On a picturesque, one acre lot, you'll enjoy a sun-filled eat-in kitchen, a dining room with china cabinet, front-to-back family room with wood burning fireplace and French door leading to the lovely screen porch, perfect for relaxing or al fresco dining. Second floor offers 3 bright, ample-sized bedrooms, a full bath and access to the walk-up, partially finished third floor which is a perfect bonus flex space for office, rec room or future fourth bedroom. Outdoors, enjoy the open, level and spacious backyard perfect for play and entertaining plus a detached 4-car garage. Don't miss this one!
