Overview

Welcome to 3255 S. Schultz Drive in Lansing, IL, a charming and tastefully decorated home offering a blend of modern amenities and classic comfort. This inviting residence boasts three bedrooms and one-and-a-half bathrooms. The main floor showcases stunning laminate flooring that runs seamlessly throughout the space. The heart of the home is the kitchen, which features elegant new cabinets, sleek quartz countertops, high-end Samsung black stainless steel appliances, and a custom tile backsplash, creating a perfect setting for both daily meals and entertaining guests. On the main level, you'll find two well-appointed bedrooms and an updated bathroom with modern flair. The large upstairs bedroom includes its own private bathroom for added privacy. The finished basement extends the living space with a cozy rec room, as well as a spacious laundry and storage area. Outside, the property offers a generous backyard and a two-car garage, enhancing the appeal of this delightful home. Nothing to do but move in! Schedule your showing today.
