Overview

If you've been yearning for a private escape nestled in the backwoods of Wisconsin, you'll want to consider this 18.83-acre parcel, ideally situated on Spaulding Road, in Jackson County. Out of the 18.83 acres, the 3.00 acres on the rear portion that are the most likely homesite are already partially cleared and zoned residential. While you're relaxing in the woods and immersed in the sounds of nature, you're sure to find yourself surrounded by the turkeys, deer, and bear that frequent the area. Add a firepit for evenings around the fire, and some walking trails for daytime entertainment. Ride your ATV or UTV right out the driveway to wherever you want to go with the ATV friendly roads. Whether you're looking to build a dream home, create a family getaway, or invest in land for future development, this property offers the versatility to suit a variety of needs and preferences. You'll escape the hustle and bustle of everyday life, yet still be conveniently close to essential amenities!
