Overview

Wonderful equestrian property nestled in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains. This unique property features a 3BR/2BA custom home, designed by local renowned architect Tom Hollis, that is well-sited on 22 acres, tucked away off the main road and surrounded by woods for the ultimate in privacy. Highlights of the home include its exceptional open living space featuring a large great room area with stone wood burning fireplace, heart pine floors, cathedral ceilings with reclaimed hand-hewn beams, replica plaster straw walls, and French doors opening to the back outdoor deck area, which is great for relaxing, dining, and entertaining. Whole house generator and security system. There is also a quaint and cozy 1870 antique guest cabin that you will never want to leave. Equestrian amenities include a 3-stall center-aisle barn with tack room, half bath and laundry, riding arena, and 6 divided fenced pasture areas. This property is rustic, charming and elegant. A true must see!
