Overview

Located close to shopping, food, and other small town amenities while remaining close to open fields where you can feel the madness of neighbors drift away just by looking across the openness. This home has a functional kitchen without feeling cramped and a large living space to allow for entertainment opportunities to stay inside or flow into the fenced backyard. Whether you're looking to invest in a rental or find your Right-For-Your-Needs home, check out the floor plan and overall feel this property offers and see how it meets needs you didn't even know you had. Looking to keep the bedrooms close to each other? Nailed it! Wanting to have a split floor plan? There's potential for that on the opposite end of the structure. Supportive community, delicious food options, and removed enough not to have the big city noises while you're trying to sleep each night. Priced well below those in larger towns, this is not A choice...it's the RIGHT choice for you today. Let's Move you in the right direction to making it yours now.
