Overview

Discover the epitome of privacy and experience a combination of beauty and sophistication in this privately gated estate, within the highly sought after Los Robles Hills Estates in Thousand Oaks. The home boasts expansive living spaces featuring soaring high ceilings, a versatile floor plan, stunning expansive panoramic views and an elegant Country Estate aesthetic. Spanning 3,715 light and bright square feet, this freshly painted and refreshed home provides an effortless blend of charm with modern luxury. With nearly 1-acre of meticulously manicured landscaping, 20 mature avocado trees and multiple citrus trees, you are welcomed to a tranquil oasis that seamlessly integrates into its natural surroundings. Boasting 4 bedrooms, 4 baths, an office and a gym, plus a private backyard and front yard, there is ample space for relaxation and entertainment. The home's layout is thoughtfully designed with a downstairs primary suite featuring a fireplace and offering an en suite bath with separate vanity areas, shower, soaking tub and opening to a breathtaking front patio and lush grass area. There is even a separate entrance leading to a bedroom and bath over the garage - perfect for guests or an additional private office or media room. Entertain with ease in the expansive private backyard with a long brick-lined patio, built in BBQ, in-ground spa, fire-pit area, grass and a rose garden. You will even have the perfect viewing area for the 4th of July Fireworks show, right from your backyard! Welcome home to an impeccably curated residence that exceeds expectations and immerse yourself in serenity with a stunning backdrop.
