Overview

This property spans 1 acre more or less. This moderate-sized parcel offers ample space for various purposes while being manageable for maintenance. It provides sufficient room for a comfortable single-family home, a spacious yard, and potential additional features such as a garden, pool, or detached garage. This lot is ideal for creating a private, serene environment with enough space for outdoor activities, landscaping, and perhaps even some small-scale agriculture or hobby farming. It allows for significant customization and utilization based on the owner's needs and desires. Check out drone footage of property here Note: Price does not change based on actual acreage amount.
