Overview

Welcome to this classic 5-bedroom home located just moments from the serene shores of Lake Junaluska! Featuring a traditional floor plan and a timeless brick exterior, this property perfectly combines comfort and charm. Inside, you'll find spacious living areas that flow seamlessly from room to room, ideal for both everyday living and entertaining. The heart of the home includes a bright, spacious kitchen, a cozy family room with a fireplace, and a formal dining area offering ample space for gatherings. The generously sized bedrooms provide a peaceful retreat, with plenty of natural light. One of the standout features of this property is the separate apartment in the basement. This space offers both interior and exterior access, making it versatile for guests or potential rental income. While the finishes in the basement apartment are unpermitted, they add a functional and flexible living area that could be perfect for extended family, a home office, or hobby space.
