Overview

For the first time ever, this large 5 bedroom 1.5 bathroom home is on the market! Updated windows, roof, and kitchen appliances. Located just outside of the city of Petoskey in a country setting on a paved road. A successful, five-star rated short term rental currently, this home could be a great investment property or a spacious home for a family. Beautifully maintained one acre private setting, large detached garage, and a large paved driveway make the setting perfect for someone looking for some peace and tranquility away from town.
