Overview

This dream retreat sits in the hills of the central part of Kentucky, (Green County) and only minutes from town. The extraordinary, recreational estate features a barndominium style home that blends with rustic charm and modern amenities.. Spanning 150 pristine woodland acres, this property provides an unparalleled sense of seclusion and privacy. Whether you are in search for your primary residence, a hunting camp, or a weekend getaway, consider this country oasis an abundance of privacy, nature and wildlife. At the end of a paved road, sets the stunning modern rustic home, encompassing approximately 4000 sq ft, offering ample space for your entertainment or relaxation. Within the home, you will find a possibility of 4 sizable bedrooms, 2 with ensuite baths, the other 2 sharing a bath. There is also a half bath in the laundry area and an additional half bath located in the garage (which is approx 2000 sq ft). The rustic outdoorsy design invites you to unwind in the tranquility of country lifestyle. The open layout is spacious enough for large groups, or quaint enough for just 2. The kitchen comes with custom cabinetry, island and all stainless steel appliances. While you cozy up in front of the dry stack stone fireplace, check out the vaulted tongue and groove pine ceilings with exposed beams, the chandelier and recessed lighting throughout. This recently built barndo/hunter's lodge offers concrete flooring, blown insulation, top of the line electrical, plumbing, and windows. The outside offers a seamless metal roof as well as metal siding, covered concrete patios and an additional stone woodburning fireplace, ensuring every aspect of the home is not only beautiful but is also durable and functional. There are several trails through the 150 acres of assorted woodlands, a creek flowing through and plentiful wildlife, white tail are exceptional on this unique property. Don't miss your opportunity on this rare find. Schedule your private showing today..
