Overview

Ready for a new owner! This home was loved by the previous owners. It has so much room, including a mother-in-law suite or an office with its own bathroom. This room could also be used for home school, playroom or even a music room. A cozy den with fireplace that leads into a glassed-in sunroom (this is not included in the square footage). An area that goes into the garage is a workshop area. This has a wall heater and AC. The yard is very spacious and has room for a pool, garden and a shop! Roof was just put on this year! Come see and make this unique property your own!
