Overview

Location, location, location! This historic 4-bedroom, 2-bathroom Sierra home, built in 1900, offers 1,892 sq. ft. of character and charm in the heart of Eureka Springs' Historic District. Set on a beautifully landscaped double lot, this well-maintained gem features a partially screened porch, a covered second deck, and an unfinished basement ideal for storage. The original Carriage house and rare 4+ parking spots make this property a true find. Homes with this much parking are a rare commodity in downtown Eureka Springs. This home is located just a short 5-minute walk from the vibrant Downtown Shopping District, brimming with shops, restaurants, nightlife, and music. Full of historic charm, this home perfectly blends old-world elegance with modern convenience—ideal for those who appreciate history and the lively atmosphere of downtown living. Don't miss out on this unique opportunity.
