Overview

An architectural masterpiece nestled along a prime ridge at The Cliffs at Walnut Cove. Featured in Carolina Home + Garden's Winter 2023 edition. This one-of-a-kind, bespoke gated mansion sits along 2.46 private acres, with unobstructed long range views through massive windows. Designed by Young and Young Architects, this custom-built residence combines wood, steel, stone and glass over two expansive levels. The home is grand, with open spaces. The bedrooms are stylish, most with in-suite baths. The open kitchen and dining area features the finest materials. For recreation, there's a bar room, a full professional gym, an infinity pool with spa and an adjoining cabana. Every room and every space in this home has wow factor, which is obvious the moment you enter. The home features solar panels, Geothermal cooling/heating, Tesla Powerwall, gas generator and electric car station. The Cliffs is a private, gated community with a Jack Nicklaus golf course and clubhouse.
