Overview

Enjoy in-town living with all that Osterville has to offer at your front door. Whether looking for a pied-a-terre or a full-time residence, this first floor ranch style 2 bed/2bath end unit with garage in the desirable Osterville Village condominium complex could be the answer! This light and bright unit offers a slate entry and hardwood floors throughout the living and dining areas. The living room has built-in storage units surrounding the oversized window, a wood burning fireplace for cool evenings and sliders to a private patio for your personal enjoyment. Entertaining is a breeze! The galley kitchen with generous cabinet and counter space flows smoothly to the dining area. The light filled primary bedroom includes a large en suite bath with ample closet space and double sinks as a bonus. A large second bedroom, full guest bath and laundry area complete the living space. Recent renovations include new air conditioning system and window replacement.
