Overview

This charming 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom home in Danville, Kentucky, has been thoughtfully updated to combine modern amenities with classic comfort. The exterior features a recently resurfaced driveway that adds to the home's curb appeal, leading to a welcoming entrance. Inside, the house boasts an open and airy floor plan. The kitchen is a standout, featuring brand-new granite countertops that offer plenty of workspace, complemented by a stylish new backsplash that adds a touch of sophistication. New light fixtures enhance the modern feel and create a warm, inviting atmosphere. The living spaces are comfortable and well-sized, with natural light streaming through windows. Each of the three bedrooms offers ample space and storage, making them ideal for relaxation. The two bathrooms are well-maintained, ensuring convenience and comfort. Located in a quiet, friendly neighborhood in Danville, this home is close to local amenities, including schools, parks, and shopping centers. It's the perfect blend of style, comfort, and modern updates, ready for you to move in and make it your own.
