Overview

Step back in time with this captivating historic gem, one of the oldest homes in Gonzales County. Originally a stage stop from the 1840s, this property boasts 3 spacious bedrooms and 2 baths, offering a glimpse into the past with its handmade interior and exterior walls. The home, built in the 1800s, features a sunroom that bathes the space in natural light through its large windows, highlighting the original grandeur waiting to be restored. A metal roof ensures durability, while several fireplaces add to the charm and warmth of the home. Nestled on half an acre, the property is graced by a majestic oak tree in the front yard, complementing the areas rich horse-breeding history and inviting you to restore and preserve a piece of local heritage.
