Overview

This lot is located in a thriving subdivision! The location with the beautiful mountain views would be a fine place to build your dream home! Town is just right around the corner. Located in the city limits, but feels like country. These lots have electric, city sewer, city water and natural gas to the property! Bring your builder and your plan! If you need direction with any of that , we are here to help. Come check this subdivision out! Interest Rates are at an all time low! Measurements approximate.
