Overview

Perched on the corner of Beech and Howard Streets, sits this lovely home with expansive vistas of Little Traverse Bay. Enjoy the view from the comfort of the covered front porch while you listen to the water feature flowing quietly from the corner of the yard. This home is set high above the street, so you have that rare feeling of privacy paired with the convenience and walkability of downtown living. Once you enter the driveway you will find a modern, attached, heated, 2 car garage with additional workspace in the back. There is also a secluded courtyard adorned with a border garden and outdoor lighting, ideal for entertaining. Inside, this home features a mudroom with laundry, a custom kitchen with stainless steel appliances, a 7 ft. island, and lighted cabinetry, along with a convenient layout, and ample storage! There are heated bathroom floors, as well as a spacious living area with a fireplace and a heatilator. Boasting four bedrooms, plenty of bay views, and extensive landscaping, 402 Beech Street is the perfect property to enjoy all that northern Michigan has to offer.
