Roll up your sleeves to put finishing touches on this unique home on the edge of Niantic and call it yours! While it is in need of trim and other finishes, this house stands out with its obvious charm and potential! Tall ceilings make the space feel big and open. The living room has soaring cathedral ceilings centered around a cozy fireplace which makes this space the heart of this home. You will also love the covered back patio which also has a fireplace and overlooks the privacy fenced yard. The huge eat-in kitchen, 1/2 bath and 2 car garage round out the main floor. Upstairs there is a large master suite with master bath nearly finished and offers separate tub, glass shower and double vanity. The laundry is located conveniently on the 2nd floor as well. TONS of storage in gally style closets in both the master and 2nd bedroom as well as a large walk-up attic space with unfinished drywall would could be finished to a 3rd floor bonus room. A third bathroom is also yet to be completed into full bathroom with tub and vanity available for the project. Current owner has taken this home from NO drywall, flooring and HVAC to its current live-able space BUT it's ready to be finished to your taste! Check it out today!
